

First Footnote:

- 1) Original source
- 2) Where you got it from (you don't need the copyright or reprint info, though)

For example –

1. Hervey Allen, “German Dugouts,” excerpted from Toward the Flame: A War Diary (1934; University of Pittsburgh Press, 1968, 111-119), in Kevin J. Fernlund, ed., Documents for America's History Vol II (Boston: Bedford St. Martins, 2011), 187-188.

Second/ subsequent Footnotes: (shortened form)

2. Allen, “German Dugouts,” 188.

Using “Ibid.” (only if the citation is from the EXACT same source as the one above)

3. Ibid., 187.
