Questions you should be able to answer using SPECIFIC evidence from our readings (for example as short answer, compare/contrast, essay, or For & Against written responses)

How have the 1960s-era goals of civil rights and feminist movements been achieved? In contrast, be able to discuss ways that those goals have not been achieved, or ways in which inequality (race, gender, or class/income) increased since the end of the 1960s.

The first Earth Day was celebrated in 1970; what are some of the milestones in, and challenges of, the environmental movement in the US since then?

Middle-class and working-class wages have been declining since the mid-1970s and the US economy has been marked by increasing national debt and decreasing manufacturing capacity (i.e. the transition from a manufacturing to a service and high-tech economy). How have various presidents or political programs tried to intervene in these trends over the years?

Provide historical background to US intervention in these places in the 1980s-2000s: Iran, Afghanistan, Nicaragua, Iraq, Rwanda, Libya, the former Yugoslav republics

One of the most remarkable developments of the early 1990s was the fall of the Iron Curtain and the breakup of the Soviet Union. How did that come to pass? What were the immediate effects at the time? What have been some of the long-term effects since?

Your textbook defines globalization (p. 910) as “the extension of economic, political and cultural relationships among nations, through commerce, migration, and communication.” What are some concrete examples (agreements, events, organizations, etc) of this concept in recent years?

How does your textbook account for the “Great Recession” which began in 2007 in the U.S. It’s sort of an awkward term – can you come up with a better one?
