

HI 112-03      Reminder - complete Constitutions Module #1 by Wednesday, Feb 1

Monday, Feb 6 -- Seminar #1 Question - respond in 2-p paper that will be your entrance ticket
How did the relationship between freedom and government change from 1865 to 1900? In your view, was this era marked by expanding or diminishing freedom? (and where/when or for whom?)

Seminar 1 Panelists

Nicole Gifford, Ries Kennington, Leah Nankwanga, Quy Ngo, Josh Oliver

Documents: (GML 15-18* and WWL 1-6)

*Petition of Edisto Island, SC to Andrew Johnson, 1865

*From a Sharecropping Contract, 1866

Huddle, "To Educate a Race"

Letter "to my Old Master" 1865

Knights of the White Camelia, 1868

"We Are Literally Slaves," 1912

Chen, "Linking a Continent and a Nation"

California Must Be All American, 1878

Homesteading in South Dakota in the 1880s, 1930

A Montana Cowtown, 1899

*Andrew Carnegie, "The Gospel of Wealth" 1889

*Ira Steward, "A Second Declaration of Independence" 1879

Trennert, "Educating Indian Girls at Nonreservation Boarding Schools, 1878-1920"

Rules for Indian Schools, 1890

A Government Official Describes Indian Race and Culture, 1905

The Cutting Off Of My Long Hair, 1885

*Josiah Strong, "Our Country," 1885

Zeidel, "An Immigrant's Anguish"

Struggles of an Irish Immigrant, 1913

Italian Bootblack's Story, 1902

Bintel Brief, 1907

Sidorick, "The 'Girl Army' and the Philadelphia Shirtwaist Strike, 1909-1910"

Only Heroic Women Were Doctors Then, 1865, written in 1916

Women's Separate Sphere, 1872

Employments Unsuitable for Women, 1901

Aguinaldo's Case Against the United States, 1899

Medley, "The Birth of 'Separate But Equal'"

Sen. Tillman Defends Disenfranchisement and Lynching, 1900

George H. White's Farewell Speech to Congress, 1901

A Call for Equality, 1905

*Charlotte Perkins Gilman, "Women and Economics" 1898

John Mitchell, "A Workingman's Conception of Industrial Liberty" 1910

What were the origins and the significance of Populism?

How did the liberties of black citizens after 1877 give way to legal segregation across the South?

In what ways did the boundaries of American freedom grow narrower in the last two decades of the 1800s?

How did the United States emerge as an international imperial power in the 1890s?